Going for gold!

You are a group of English students who are working towards your Duke of Edinburgh (DofE) Gold Award. You are planning an expedition, but unfortunately one member of your group broke her leg yesterday and can't take part. You now need to find one more person to join your team!

Your group task is to create an attractive advertisement to encourage someone to take part in the expedition with you. Use the table below to help you organise your information and make notes before you create your advert.

You will need to find out some details from the DofE website. Go to www.dofe.org

Your advert needs to include answers to the following questions:

Who are the people in your group? (e.g. names, ages, personalities)

When and for how long are you going on your expedition?
(Have a look at one of the sections on the DofE website under 'Doing your D of E'.)

Where are you going on your expedition?
Choose from one of the sections listed on the DofE website under 'Doing your D of E'.)

How are you travelling? (Have a look on the DofE website for possible ways to travel.)

What is some of the important equipment the person would need to bring?
(See the 'Expedition Kit List' on the DofE website under 'Doing your D of E'.)

How should the person contact you if they are interested or want more information? (e.g. by email, by phone, at school)
