Can I try it on?

A Label the clothes below with the words from the box.

belt boots dress hat jacket jeans sandals shirt shoes
shorts socks suit tie top trainers T-shirt

B Put the dialogue between a clothes shop assistant and a customer, into the correct order.

- Thanks ... Oh that's much better.
- Would you like to try a different colour?
- By debit card, thanks.
- How are you getting on in there?
- 1 Hi, can I try these clothes on, please?
- Well, that's an extra small. I'll see if we have it in a small ... Yes, here you go.
- Thank you. Bye.
- The size was alright, but the colour doesn't really suit me.
- Yes, sure. The changing room's over there, in the corner.
- Great! That's £78.98, please. How would you like to pay?
- Hmm, OK. The jeans fit really well, but the shirt's too small. Have you got it in a bigger size?
- Thanks very much.
- How about the orange top? Did that fit you?
- Just put your card in here and enter your PIN number ... That's great, thank you. I'll put your receipt in the bag.
- No, thanks. I think I'll leave it for just now, but I'll take the jeans and shirt.
- Oh, yes. I see it. Thanks.

C You have been invited to a party next weekend and have nothing to wear! Go to your favourite clothes shop to buy a new outfit. Create a dialogue with your partner, similar to the model above. One of you is the shop assistant and the other is the customer.
