

Student A

Look at the words in the crossword. Can you remember what they all mean? You need to mime or explain the words for your partner to guess. When you guess your partner's words, write them into your grid.

Student B

Look at the words in the crossword. Can you remember what they all mean? You need to mime or explain the words for your partner to guess. When you guess your partner's words, write them into your grid.

Discussion questions

- 1 What advice would you give someone who is going for a job interview? (Use must, mustn't and needn't!)
- 2 Which special occasion in the year do you like best? Why?
- 3 Which superstitions from other countries can you remember?
- 4 Imagine your best friend is going on a date this evening. What advice would you give? (Use should and ought to!)
- 5 Imagine it's your birthday next weekend and you're having a party. What would you write in the invitation to your friend?