

It's incredible!

A Read the text and complete the gaps using can or can't and the verbs below.

become do lift run see stretch

The Incredibles is a film about a family of superheroes. They have special powers, but they have to keep them a secret. Mr Incredible is very strong and ¹ _____ heavy things easily. His wife, Elastigirl, ² _____ any part of her body up to 30 metres. They have three children – Violet, Dash and Jack-Jack. Violet ³ _____ invisible, so people ⁴ _____ her, and Dash ⁵ _____ very, very fast. Violet and Dash don't always get on well together and sometimes fight and shout loudly at each other.

Jack-Jack is the baby of the family. At first, his parents don't think he ⁶ _____ anything special, but later they discover that he has incredible powers too.

B Look at the picture of The Incredibles, but don't look at the text! Work in pairs and discuss the questions.

- 1 Can you remember the names of everyone in the family?
- 2 What special powers do they have?
- 3 Do you think they're a happy family? Why/Why not?
- 4 Which member of the family would you most like to be? Why?
- 5 Can you think of other superheroes? What special powers do they have?

C Complete the adverbs.

- 1 I can speak German fl _____ nt _____.
- 2 My mum drives _____ fully.
- 3 I always study h _____ before exams.
- 4 My grandparents can ballroom dance b _____ t _____ f _____ y.
- 5 My best friend speaks _____ ou _____ on the phone.
- 6 I sometimes hand in homework _____ at _____.
- 7 My dad eats dinner _____ ck _____.
- 8 I can remember new English vocabulary ea _____.