

A Put the dialogues into the correct order.

- 1 A Nice to meet you, Jake. I'm Linda. What class are you in?
- B Do you miss it?
- C Yes, really well. We're best friends.
- D Really? Me, too.
- E Yes, I've got a twin brother. He's in class 11B.
- F Oh that's great! I'm a bit nervous. This is my first day.
- G Oh, right. Where are you from?
- H Hi, are you new?
- I Wow! A twin! Do you get on well with him?
- J I'm from Cambridge.
- K Have you got any brothers or sisters?
- L 11C.
- M Yes, I've got lots of friends there. I really miss them!
- N Yes, I am. My name's Jake.

- 2 A Yes, today's my first day. My name's Heidi.
- B No, I'm an only child. What about you?
- C No, I'm from Canada. From Vancouver.
- D Hi, my name's Marie. Are you new here?
- E Really? Do you all live together?
- F My mum's got a new job here. She works at the university.
- G Really? Why are you in Oxford?
- H And what does your dad do?
- I I've got two sisters and three step-brothers.
- J Yes, we do. Our house is always very noisy!
- K He's a photographer.
- L Have you got any brothers or sisters?
- M Oh, you've got an American accent! Do you come from the USA?

B Imagine that you are a new student at the school. Invent information about yourself. Write it in the first column.

	Me	Student 1	Student 2
Name
From Class
Brothers & sisters
Parents

C Talk to two other students and write information about them in the chart.