

A Rewrite the sentences using the negative form of have got.

- 1 I've got a rabbit. _____
- 2 David has got an Irish girlfriend. _____
- 3 She's got two sisters. _____
- 4 Polly and Tyler have got a big house. _____
- 5 My dog has got a basket. _____
- 6 You've got a bike. _____
- 7 We've got an American teacher. _____

B Write questions with the prompts below. Use have got and a/an.

- 1 you / TV in your bedroom? Have you got a TV in your bedroom? _____
- 2 your house / garden? _____
- 3 your parents / old car? _____
- 4 you / electric guitar? _____
- 5 our town / university? _____
- 6 you / Eminem CD? _____
- 7 our teacher / black bag? _____

C Work in pairs. Ask and answer the questions from B. Tell the class about your partner.

Have you got a TV in your bedroom?
No, I haven't. What about you?

D Correct the sentences. Use the articles a/an or the.

- 1 'Are your parents at home?' 'No, they're at cinema.'

- 2 Have we got English exam at school this afternoon?

- 3 'What time is it in New Zealand now?' 'It's four o'clock in morning.'

- 4 We've got rabbit and four cats, but we haven't got dog.'

- 5 They've got two cars, Audi and Porsche. Audi is new, but Porsche is old.

- 6 'Is your mum at work?' 'No, she isn't. She's in kitchen.'

- 7 'We've got new teacher.' 'Really? What's teacher's name?'

- 8 'My brother is on TV tomorrow.' 'Really? What time?' 'At eight o'clock in evening.'
