

Revision activities for students.

- 1 Write words which are the opposite of the adjectives below, e.g.

interesting – boring

attractive

free

nice

beautiful

intelligent

quiet

boring

interesting

same

different

late

short

early

modern

small

easy

natural

true

exciting

new

- 2 Use the common verbs below to write six sentences about things you do every week, e.g.

I listen to a lot of music.

choose

mean

travel

do

meet

use

finish

relax

visit

go out

say

walk

leave

speak

watch

like

study

work

listen

teach

write

- 3 Look at page 15 in your Student's Book and write eight true sentences about yourself. Use ideas from the Learn this! box and include some negative sentences, e.g.

My name is ...

I don't like ...

- 4 Write a conversation between two people who meet for the first time. Use the phrases from Student's Book page 14 to help you. Practise the conversation out loud with your friends or on your own.

- 5 Draw your family tree. Use the names of your family and the Family vocabulary from page 8 in your Student's Book to help you, e.g.

