

Ideas for short revision activities you could do at the start or end of a class, or give to students to do themselves.

- 1 Write sentences describing your bedroom. Use prepositions from the list below. Ask questions with Is there ... ? or Are there ... ? Practise by saying them out loud, e.g.

Is there a bed? Yes, there is. It's next to the door.

Are there any posters? Yes, there are. They're opposite the bed.

- 2 Write directions from the front door of your school to your classroom. Write six sentences. Use the phrases from Student's Book page 34 to help you. Say the phrases out loud and try to remember them.
- 3 Try to answer all the questions about school below. Write down the questions and answers, then practise asking and answering them with a friend.
- Is your school a state school or a private school?
  - Is it a (mixed) school?
  - How old are the students when they start and leave?
  - How many (teachers) are there?
  - Do you have to (wear a uniform)?
  - Do you have to study (R.E.)?
- 4 Write a list of all the subjects you study at school. Next to each subject, write a something that you use when you study that subject, e.g.
- maths      a calculator*
English     a dictionary
