

2B

All in the past

A In these sentences, the past simple verbs in bold are in the wrong places. Re-organise them so the sentences make sense.

- Jasmine is in hospital. Yesterday, she taught off her horse and read her leg.
- I fell the Arsenal-Liverpool match live on TV. It was great!
- Jack was exhausted after he broke 50 lengths of the pool.
- Sally hit the rules about cricket before she swam to the match, but she still didn't understand the game!
- The boxer saw his opponent really hard and knocked him out.
- Terry's father went him how to play golf when he was just four years old.

B These sentences are all in the past simple. Rewrite them, making the affirmative sentences negative and the negative sentences affirmative.

- He took lots of photos of the skiers and snowboarders.

- The rugby match didn't begin on time.

- She said 'Congratulations' to her opponent.

- I didn't leave my sports kit at home.

- He ran very fast, won the race and was very happy.

- The referee didn't give the player a red card.

C Complete the questions with an infinitive verb in the box.

break draw fall go have hit read win

When you were a child, did you

- _____ off your bike?
- _____ comic books?
- _____ lots of pictures?
- _____ camping with your family?
- _____ a sports competition?
- _____ a bone?
- _____ your brother or sister?
- _____ a favourite toy?

D In pairs, ask and answer the questions from C. Give as much information as possible and make sure you use the past simple!

When you were a child, did you fall off your bike?

Yes, I did. When I was five, I fell off my bike and hurt my arm! It was very painful and I cried a lot.