

A Gail and Thomas have just come back from different holidays. Gail had a great time on holiday, but Thomas had a terrible trip! With your partner, discuss possible reasons why Gail's holiday was good and why Thomas's was bad. Use the words in the box to help you.

weather hotel apartment food beach
entertainment activities museums scenery

B Gail and Thomas are talking about their holidays. Look at the sentences and complete the gaps by using the extreme adjectives from the box. Which ones are about Gail's holiday and which are about Thomas's?

boiling delicious delighted fascinating filthy furious hideous ridiculous spotless tiny

- 1 Was the weather hot? Yes! It was _____.
- 2 Was the food tasty? Yes! It was _____.
- 3 Was your apartment big? No! It was _____.
- 4 Was your room clean? Yes! It was _____.
- 5 Were the museums interesting? Yes! They were _____.
- 6 Was the beach clean? No! It was _____.
- 7 Were you angry when someone stole your money? Yes! I was _____.
- 8 Did you feel silly when you fell over? Yes! I felt _____.
- 9 Was the hotel beautiful? No! It was _____.
- 10 Did you feel happy when you won the competition? Yes, I was _____.

With your partner, take it in turns to be Gail and Thomas and ask and answer the questions.

C Now imagine that you are Gail or Thomas and that you are still on holiday. Use the information above and extra ideas of your own to write a blog entry for your friends back home. Have a look at the blog entries in Lesson G in the Student's Book before you start writing!

BLOG

TAG ARCHIVES:

Holiday

Posted on .....